Mission statement: The Arlington Academy of Hope (AAH) is a 501c(3) non-profit organization, based in the United States, that helps children in rural Uganda reach their full potential by providing them with a high quality, well-rounded education and with basic healthcare. Our activities in Uganda are carried out by an affiliate organization which is approved by that country as a non-profit NGO. By supporting model schools and clinics and by creating local economic development opportunities, we aim to improve the quality of life for children and their families and to transform poor villages into self-sustaining communities. Our work is carried out by a caring community of volunteers, child sponsors, donor, partners, and friends in the United States, in Uganda, and throughout the world.

ATTACHMENT 2:

AAH operates a primary school in rural Eastern Uganda, which enrolls nearly 350 students. All of them pass the Primary Leaving Exam, which qualifies them to go to secondary school. (In Uganda as a whole about 70 percent of primary school students drop out.) We pay tuition, room, and board at secondary school and university for our students and others who perform well from local schools. We have built two health clinics that serve over 20,000 patients annually. In addition to our education and health programs, we support families and the local village by creating jobs at the school and the clinics and by creating a school farm that introduces modern farming techniques.
