

As we come to the end of April, we're pleased to share our progress and the impact your continued support provides to the people we serve in rural Uganda.

Health Care update

We dedicated the month of April to focus on our health care program. The Beatrice Tierney Health Clinics provide essential and critical services to the students and the communities we serve in Bududa and Namisindwa districts. Clinics are a lifeline for the people we serve in this region.

Here is our health campaign progress. You still have time to contribute to it here.

2023 Teacher Trip

Marymount Teacher Trip

Welcome back to our 2023 Teacher Trip participants led by Dr. Elizabeth Langran. Thank you Dr. Langran for all your contributions and leadership over the years, and for delivering teacher training to our teachers in Uganda. It has been more than 10 years since Marymount University started partnering with REACH for Uganda to help train our teachers. We are grateful to Marymount students CJ Williams and Somachi Kachikwu who participated in the training and connected with our students and teachers. Your impact will forever be felt by those you touched.

We also want to thank Arlington Traditions School (ATS) Assistant Principal Inga Shoenbrun and 5th grade teacher Jennifer Leach who participated in the teacher trip and helped to rekindle the friendship between ATS and AJS schools in Uganda. Please come hear about their experiences at the picnic on May 21st. We are grateful that most of the team sponsored students and helped spread the word to friends and family.

If you are interested in participating next year, please join Marymount graduate students and area teachers on this exciting trip. Trip dates are 3/20/24 - 3/30/24, and will be led by Dr. Shannon Melideo and Dr. Nicci Dowd. Email us to save your spot at info@reachforuganda.org.

Denver Connections for REACH

The Wanda family, joined by the Angel family visited Denver to see Christine Wanda perform in The Color Purple at the Denver Performing Arts Complex. While there, we were delighted to reconnect with REACH for Uganda former board members and key volunteers: Charlee Roberts, Caitlan McDaniel and Tim Laramy and their families. We also met with John Tierney, Dr. Mittleman and his wife Linda Yarr. We thank the hosts, Charlee and Ben Roberts and the families who were invited to learn more about the work of REACH.

Georgetown University MSF Students

We're delighted to work with a team of talented Georgetown University students, in Washington DC, doing a Master of Science in Finance (MSF) degree program. Students researched banking options for rural Uganda and took a deeper dive into REACH's planned giving program. They invested time and effort in this project along with their Professor Thomas Cooke. Students will give a final presentation on their findings at Georgetown University on May 1st at 6:30 pm. If you are interested in attending the presentation, please contact us at info@reachforuganda.org. We're grateful for this partnership with Georgetown McDonough School of Business.

Please join us on May 21st for a Picnic!
