Teachers, join us on this life-changing journey to Uganda!

REACH for Uganda are excited to invite teachers and educational professionals to join us on a trip to Uganda March 18 - 29, 2027. Led by APSVA Assistant Principal Inga Schoenbrun. This trip is a unique opportunity to learn about Ugandan culture and education, while also making a difference in the lives of Ugandan teachers and students.

During this trip, you will:

- Experience the beauty and diversity of Uganda
- Visit Ugandan schools and observe classrooms, including both of REACH for Uganda's elementary schools
- Work with Ugandan teachers to share tips and tricks of the trade, and develop and implement lesson plans
- Participate in workshops on Ugandan education and culture
- Help to model lessons and teaching styles

Why go on this trip?

- To make a difference in the lives of Ugandan teachers and students. Ugandan teachers are some of the most dedicated and hardworking professionals in the world. However, they often face many challenges, such as large class sizes, limited resources, and a lack of professional development opportunities. By participating in this trip, you can help Ugandan teachers to improve their skills and knowledge, and you can also provide them with much-needed support and encouragement.
- To learn about Ugandan culture and education. Uganda is a beautiful and diverse country with a rich culture and history. On this trip, you will have the opportunity to learn about Ugandan culture and education firsthand. You will also have the chance to meet and interact with Ugandan people from all walks of life.
- To experience the beauty and diversity of Uganda. Uganda is a country with stunning scenery, diverse wildlife, and friendly people.

For more information: inga@reachforuganda.org or info@reachforuganda.org

Learn more: https://reachforuganda.org/

MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

REACH FOR UGANDA

Resources • Environment • Academics • Community • Health

The trip is open to all teachers, regardless of experience or subject area

- The trip will be limited to 14 participants.
- The application deadline is January 31, 2027.

Request an information session to learn more

inga@reachforuganda.org

Meet your trip leader, Arlington Public School's Inga Schoenbrun

Inga Schoenbrun brings 30+ years of experience spanning wilderness therapy, elementary and middle school teaching, gifted education, and school leadership in public and independent schools. Ms. Schoenbrun earned both her Masters of Arts in Teaching and Administration/Supervision certificate from Johns Hopkins University.

During her four trips to Uganda, Inga has led teacher training workshops, supported clinic visits, established professional connects, inspired sponsorships of students, and designed the summer Reading Challenge for the students at Arlington Junior and Matuwa Junior Schools.

Inga and her husband Ben, REACH for Uganda board member, feel their contributions to REACH have been transformative for them personally in particular the Clean Water Project and The Schoenbrun STEM Building. She loves to experience Uganda through the eyes on new visitors and support them as they experience Eastern Uganda in all its beauty.

How to apply:

- To apply for this trip, please visit the REACH for Uganda website. The application deadline is January 31st, 2027. https://reachforuganda.org/getinvolved/trips/

Cost:

- The cost of this ten day trip is $1,500. This includes all your accommodations, meals, and private ground transportation while in Uganda. We want to provide teachers and education professionals an affordable way to visit a beautiful country!
- Out of pocket expenses will include flights, vaccinations, and any souvenirs purchased.